Memorial Library of Nazareth and Vicinity holds Annual Pet Parade

The Memorial Library of Nazareth and Vicinity held its 2024 Pet Parade on Saturday, May 18th, beginning at Veteran’s Field in Nazareth and ending at the library. Happily, the light drizzle didn’t dampen anyone’s spirits!

Seventy-five animals registered for the special event, including a chicken, goat, bearded dragon, cat, stuffed lion, and lots of dogs. Gabe the llama, the children’s department mascot owned by Ryan Reeser, and Percy, library director Holly Bennett’s family dog, joined the registrants for the parade. Special guests included Mayor Lance Colondo, mascots from Easton Red Robin and Chick-fil-A, the Nazareth Blue Eagle, Nazareth High School cheerleaders, and the Fidelity ice cream truck.

Registrants competed for prizes in the following categories: Best Fed, Largest and Smallest Pets, Best Owner/Pet Costume Combo, Most Unusual Pet, Best Pet Float, and Star of the Show.

Attendees got to see the Addams family, pet owners dressed as goats, A Furry Tail Come True Too representative in a blow-up dog costume, and pets dressed as butterflies, Uncle Sam, a flower, a cow, a minion, and a superhero – among many others!

Early registrants received bright blue T-shirts and swag bags.

The library leadership wishes to say thank you to everyone who was a part of the parade: registrants and their families and friends, community partners, volunteers, judges, prize donors, and staff. They are especially
