HOMESTEAD KENNELS CHANGES HANDS

After 43 years, as owner of Homestead Kennels & Cattery it was time (at the age of 83) to hand over the keys to an organization that has also been devoted to our pets.

On behalf of my late husband Roy and myself, it has been a pleasure to provide a home away from home for my clients' dogs, cats and many other small pets, as well as our grooming service, and many pet supplies, since 1982!

I would like to extend my sincere gratitude to all our clients who helped put Homestead on the map. THANK YOU for your loyalty and support throughout those many years, as each one of you became the heart of my business. I hope I might even see some of you around town.

I also want to thank all my great staff over many years, who made things work so well. I made many very good friends, that I will miss, but I am satisfied that I am leaving you in the capable hands of the new owners, The Center for Animal Health and Wellness.

*God Bless,
Nancy*
