THE KEY PRAYERS

PRAYER TO THE BLESSED VIRGIN

(Never known to fail) O, most beautiful flower of Mt. Carmel, fruitful vine, Splendor of Heaven, Blessed Mother of the Son of God. Immaculate Virgin, assist me in this necessity. O, Star of the Sea, help me and show me, herein you are my mother. O, Holy Mary, Mother of God, Queen of Heaven and Earth! I humbly beseech thee from the bottom of my heart to succor me in this necessity (Make Request). There are none that can withstand your power. O, show me herein you are my mother. O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee (3x). O Holy Mary I place this cause in your hands (3x). Sweet Mother I place this cause in your hands (3x). Thank you for your mercy to me and mine Amen. This prayer must be said for three days and after three days your request will be granted and the prayer must be published. Grateful thanks.

Diabetic Foot Care

If you are diabetic, you can save your feet from unnecessary complications by seeing a podiatrist for routine foot care. Because diabetes damages the nerves in your feet, it is easy to miss foot problems or even injure yourself simply because you can't feel the pain that is your body's normal warning system. Routine diabetic foot care is covered by nearly all insurances.

What's a mother to do?

I don't know about you,
but I want to stay in my house for as long as I can.

It's the place I've called "home" for over 50 years. And even though my children really want me to move to an apartment to be with other people my age, I want to stay right here at home for as long as possible. I know they're tired of shoveling my snow, cutting my grass and taking care of repairs around my home. I realize they have their own families, so I can't expect them to want to manage my home, in addition to managing their own homes. I also know they worry about my health. Am I eating properly? Am I taking my medications properly? And what would happen to me if I fell at home and nobody was there to help me. So, what's a mother to do?

My daughter suggested
I get a "caregiver" from Senior Solutions.

This is a Lehigh Valley not-for-profit business that provides professionals who work with you in your home so you can stay there. And the list of services they can provide is long. Whether I need someone who can do housekeeping, make good meals for me, run errands and get me to appointments...they do it all. At first I resisted, because I didn't like the idea of having someone I didn't know coming into my home. But I realized it was worth a try and probably the only choice I had if I didn't want my kids to make me move.

Getting to choose my personal caregiver was important to me. First I met with someone from Senior Solutions who developed a plan and schedule for the things I needed help with. Then, I was introduced to one of their caregivers. In the beginning I only needed about 6 hours of help each week with things like light housekeeping, laundry, making meals, getting to medical appointments and doing errands that needed to be done. And then, a few months ago I became ill and was hospitalized briefly and needed to extend my caregiver's hours. I needed some additional help with getting showered and dressed each day, and I needed my caregiver to keep me on track with the medications I had to take. These were things I know my children would have found a way to help me with, but not without sacrificing things in their work and family lives.

I've come to trust my personal caregiver with my life. After making a full recovery from my illness, she is back on her regular schedule of duties to keep me successful at home. And the best part?

My children are relieved and don't worry about me being at home anymore.

When they visit they can see that everything is in good order and things are being taken care of in the house. They often go into my refrigerator to help themselves to something when they visit, and they see the foods and meals that are prepared for me to eat. They comment that I eat better than they do.

Maintaining independence is important to your parents.
When they need help, call Senior Solutions to give your parents the ability to be successful living at home.
A caregiver from Senior Solutions can:

- Provide Companionship & Conversation
- Assist with Personal Care Needs & Mobility
- Prepare Meals
- Light Housekeeping & Laundry
- Organize & Provide Medication Reminders
- Organize & Assist with Reviewing Mail
- Plan Visits, Outings & Trips
- Accompany to Appointments & Perform Errands
- Provide Specialized Dementia Care

Ways to Pay for Services from Senior Solutions:

- Long Term Care Policies
- Employer-Sponsored Health Benefits
- Veterans Administration Benefits
- Self-Pay

Senior Solutions has been helping people "stay at home"
for over 25 years.

Solutions at 610.258.0700
