Record Number of Births at St. Luke's

For the first time in the Network's history, a total of more than 6,000 babies were born at St. Luke's three birthing hospitals during a fiscal year, which ends June 30. The figure surpasses Fiscal Year 2024's total of 5,000 births, which at that time was a new record.

"This major milestone reflects our patients' trust in, and desire for, the special care and expertise they experience in our labor and delivery suites at St. Luke's Allentown, Anderson and Upper Bucks campuses," said Elizabeth Dierking, MD, chair of the Department of Obstetrics & Gynecology.

Number 6,000 was tiny baby Levi, arriving at 2:09 a.m. on Wednesday, June 10, at St. Luke's Allentown Campus. The 5-pound, 15-ounce and 20 1/2-inch-long infant is the son of Kevin Kelenski and Eliza Oliveri of Orefield.

"I've met a lot of great employees over multiple shifts, due to the length of my time in labor," said Oliveri, a patient of St. Luke's Complete Women's Care in Fogelsville.

Most hospitals in Northeast Pennsylvania are seeing a decline or flattening of their birth rates, consistent with the rest of Pennsylvania and the nation (<https://www.health.pa.gov/topics/HealthStatistics/VitalStatistics/BirthStatistics/Pages/birth-statistics.aspx>).

US birth rates are predicted to decline throughout the remainder of the 21st century, from 10.8 births per 1,000 people in 2023 to 8.5 per 1,000 in 2100, according to usafacts.org.

Racers compete in the 9th Annual Adult Soapbox Derby in Nazareth

The 9th Annual Nazareth Adult Soapbox Derby took place on Saturday, June 6th. Hosted by the Nazareth Adult Soapbox Racing Association and the Lehigh Conference of Churches, 20 handmade soapbox cars competed in the event this year to see who had the fastest, and most creative handmade soapbox cars.

The race took place on West Prospect Street in Nazareth where racers sped down a 1,000 foot track. AJ Ressler took home first place for the fastest soapbox, followed by Craig Dally in second and Rick Noverse in third place.

In the creativity category, Joey Sell won first place for his cheese-wedge car, Mike Becker placed second for his gurney soapbox, and Jay Carita took home third place for his Amish Express car. One racer, Robert Hennings, even traveled all the way from Iowa.

All proceeds benefited the Lehigh Conference of Churches' homeless prevention program, which helps to provide meals, resources and assistance to thousands of residents throughout the area.

For more information about the Lehigh Conference of Churches, or to take part in next year's Soapbox Derby, visit <https://lehighchurches.org/>.

What's a father to do?

I don't know about you, but I want to stay in my house for as long as I can.

It's the place I've called "home" for over 50 years. And even though my children really want me to move to an apartment to be with other people my age, I want to stay right here at home for as long as possible. I realize they have their own families, so I can't expect them to want to manage my home, in addition to managing their own homes. I also know they worry about my health. Am I eating properly? Am I taking my medications properly? And what would happen to me if I fell at home and nobody was there to help me? So, what's a father to do?

My daughter suggested I get a "caregiver" from Senior Solutions.

This is a Lehigh Valley not-for-profit business that provides professionals who work with you in your home so you can stay there. And the list of services they can provide is long. Whether I need someone who can help with light housekeeping, make good meals for me, run errands, or get me to appointments...they do it all. At first I resisted, because I didn't like the idea of having someone I didn't know coming into my home. But I realized it was worth a try and probably the only choice I had if I didn't want my kids to make me move.

I met with someone from Senior Solutions who developed a plan and schedule for the things I needed help with. In the beginning I only needed about 5 hours of help each week with things like laundry, making meals, getting to medical and therapy appointments, and doing errands like grocery shopping and banking. These were things I know my children would have found a way to help me with, but not without sacrificing things in their work and family lives.

I've come to trust my caregiver with all of my daily tasks. It is like having a personal helper to assist me with anything I need. And it's the solution that is going to keep me safe and secure in the place I want to be...my own home. And the best part?

My children are relieved and don't worry about me being at home anymore.

When they visit they can see that everything is in good order and things are being taken care of in the house. They often go into my refrigerator to help themselves to something when they visit, and they see the foods and meals that are prepared for me to eat. They comment that I eat better than they do.

Independence is important to your parents. When they need help, call Senior Solutions to give your parents the ability to be successful living at home. While there is no weekly or monthly time commitment required, a single visit must be a minimum of 2 hours.

A caregiver from Senior Solutions can:

- Provide Companionship & Conversation
- Assist with Personal Care Needs (bathing/showering, dressing, personal hygiene & grooming)
- Prepare Meals
- Do Light Housekeeping & Laundry
- Provide Medication Reminders
- Organize & Assist with Mail
- Accompany to Appointments & Do Errands
- Provide Short-Term Help after Injury, Illness, or Hospitalization

Ways to Pay for Services from Senior Solutions:

- Long Term Care Policies
- Employer-Sponsored Health Benefits
- Veterans Administration Benefits
- Self-Pay
