ATTENTION NAZARETH BOROUGH RESIDENTS

LEAF COLLECTION HAS STARTED

PUBLIC WORKS WILL ONLY PICK UP LEAVES...NOT BRANCHES OR GRASS

The annual collection of leaves throughout Borough streets has begun. Please know that Borough Public Works employees “will only pick up leaves” and not grass clippings, branches or tree trimmings. Grass and other natural refuse must still be taken to the Borough’s Yard Waste Recycling Center on G.W. Stoudt Boulevard. If there are clippings or branches and limbs mixed with your leaves, Public Works will not pick up anything since it will clog our collection machinery. Remember to remove all “non-permitted” refuse from your leaf pile before placing it curbside.

Memory Lane

Morningstar Living is dedicated to providing education to caregivers, professionals and community members about dementia-related diseases. Memory Lane is an initiative aimed at providing information and education to the public, specifically about dementia.

Dementia is not one condition but a group of disorders - including Alzheimer's, Vascular, Frontotemporal, and Lewy Body - that affects different areas of the brain in distinct ways.

Emily R. Zagorski Butler, DO, of Lehigh Valley Fleming Neuroscience Institute, will guide us through how each type progresses, how they are diagnosed and treated, and the behavioral changes families may notice. This seminar also explores the unique challenges and care trajectories associated with each form of dementia.

A Century of Wisdom: Three Residents Share Their Perspectives on Longevity

At Traditions of Hanover, three residents ages 99, 101 and 103 offer their perspectives on what it means to live a long and meaningful life.

They reflected on the experiences, values and relationships that have shaped their lives, with the recent centenarian luncheon hosted by the Northampton County Area Agency on Aging serving as inspiration for the conversations.

Residents Silvio Rossetti, 103; Maria Rouch, 101; and Vera Delio, 99, bring decades of memories and wisdom to their reflections on longevity.

A Life of Service and Generosity

Rossetti, the oldest resident at Traditions, just celebrated his birthday on Sept. 10. He is a Marine Corps combat veteran, wounded in action, yet fondly reflects on his time in the service as bringing him joy.

He recalls being told he was too small, suggesting he join the Navy instead. "I made up my mind that I was going to be a Marine no matter what, and I did!" Rossetti said proudly.

Family and friendships are important to him and have played a big role in his life. Rossetti describes himself as a giver without expectations. He shared details of his childhood, noting his family was poor.

Rossetti said, "I was raised tough, though we had no money, we had everything else."

His family gardened and canned everything, and he never drank or smoked, crediting his healthy lifestyle to longevity. Both of his parents lived well into their 90s.

A Century of Wisdom

Rossetti's advice to living well: "Don't drink and don't smoke. They are the most dangerous things you can do. Absolutely no drugs!"

A Life Shaped by Gratitude

For Rouch, who will turn 102 in January, a long life is rooted in gratitude and the people who surround her.

"The 4 years of war in Italy are what made me the person I am. It made me appreciate anything that is deserving of my admiration. There is much to be grateful for in life," Rouch said.

Reflecting on a lifetime defined by the World War II and its long, turbulent aftermath, she considers Italy and the U.S. to be both of her countries.

A Life Shaped by Faith, Family and Friendship

Delio believes social connections and a strong sense of community contribute to her well-being. She will celebrate her 100th birthday on Nov. 21. She has been a resident at Traditions for 10 years and stays active through on-site exercise classes.

While her social nature has enriched her life, she also emphasizes the importance of knowing one's limits and treating others with kindness.

When asked her about a moment in her life that brought her the greatest joy, Delio said, "The day World War II ended. Everyone came out of their houses kissing and hugging!" It is a moment she will never forget, there was so much joy.

Looking back on her life, Delio says having children and watching them grow up has also brought her great joy. Through life's challenges, her faith in God helped her stay positive and persevere.

Her message to the next generation: "Be kind, be social... be a people person!"

EventFULL Living^{MSL}

Morningstar Living invites you to enjoy a variety of programs. EventFULL Living is a series of programs to enrich life's journey. Reserve your place today in as many programs as you like.

The programs for NOVEMBER include:

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH at 7:00 PM

Cheek to Cheek: A Love Story in Song

Opera's powerhouse Sarah Nordin and Tyler Putnam, bring their real-life romance to the stage in Cheek to Cheek, an evening of Broadway favorites, American Songbook classics and opera's greatest melodies with Musical Director and Pianist Michele Garzo. This husband-and-wife duo bridges the gap between the grand opera stage and the intimacy of the cabaret. Since they met, their lives - and voices - have been forever linked. Now, they invite you into their world, sharing the songs that have defined their journey from the Metropolitan Opera and Santa Fe Opera to stages across the country.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5TH at 6:00 PM

Memory Lane: Differences Between the Types of Dementia

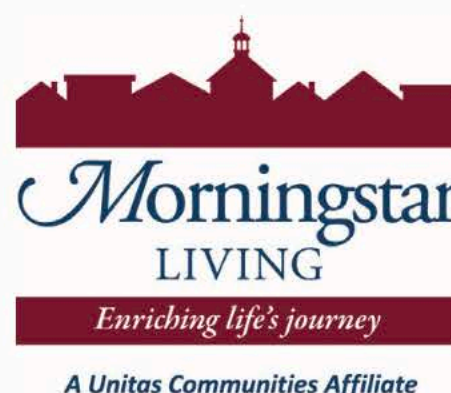

Dementia is not one condition but a group of disorders - including Alzheimer's, Vascular, Frontotemporal, and Lewy Body - that affect different areas of the brain in distinct ways. Emily R. Zagorski Butler, DO, of Lehigh Valley Fleming Neuroscience Institute, will guide us through how each type progresses, how they are diagnosed and treated, and the behavioral changes families may notice. This seminar also explores the unique challenges and care trajectories associated with each form of dementia.

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7TH at 10:30 AM

Avoiding Scams During the Holidays

Crime never takes a holiday - and neither do scammers. Every day, Pennsylvanians are targeted by individuals attempting to steal money or personal information. These criminals often prey on emotions, hoping their victims will let their guard down long enough to fall for a convincing scheme. Presenter David P. Shallcross, Director of Senior Protection, Pennsylvania Office of the Attorney General highlights the most common holiday related scams currently circulating throughout PA. Learn how these schemes work, why they are effective, and - most importantly - how to protect yourself.
